

Arbor Day is the last Friday in April. This day is a celebration of trees and their importance in our lives. Using what you already know, as well as resources in your classroom, explain how trees are important in your life and in your neighborhood.