

April 27

On April 27, 1822, Ulysses S. Grant was born. After serving in several wars, Grant later became our 18th President. Later in the 1880s, he began to write the story of his life in order to make money. Would you like to have a book written about your life? Why or why not?